

Beginning Sight Reading and Skill Building
Fall Choral Workshop --- OR ACDA
October 27, 2018 Pacific University

Clinician --- Steve Peter

Takeaways Shared By the High School Participants

Meeting people --- making new friends

Learning more music

All around improvement in my skills

Learning to read Treble Clef (shared by a string bassist)

Things take time

Different levels of talent --- yet equal

 Actually strong levels of talent – some are just more experienced than others

Learning how to find the Key of a piece

Try Everything – don't give up

Incorporate fun into learning

Solidified my basics ... and I had fun!

My past doesn't own me

I can learn in a different environment

People learn differently.

Cool t-shirt created for the workshop.
